PLENARY INDULGENCE—The faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence—a remission before God of the temporal punishment for a previously forgiven sin—by visiting a minor basilica. To obtain a plenary indulgence during a pilgrimage to a basilica, one must participate in any sacred rite or recite the Lord’s Prayer or the profession of faith while there, then go to Confession and Communion, and pray for the intention of the pope. ~ taken from The Register, Salina Diocese newspaper

Never Go Hungry Again

The most frequently used door in your home is not the front door or the garage door but the refrigerator door. Because we get hungry again and again. In today's gospel Christ promised to satisfy that unending hunger. "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger and whoever believes in me will never thirst." That deserves an explanation.

Today we continue reading from the sixth chapter of the gospel of John on the Eucharist. In this passage Christ recalls the manna given as food for their journey through the desert. It was given each morning to teach them dependence on the providence of God for their daily bread, but also to remind them of a deeper spiritual hunger. It was a prophetic symbol of the bread from heaven, the Eucharist.

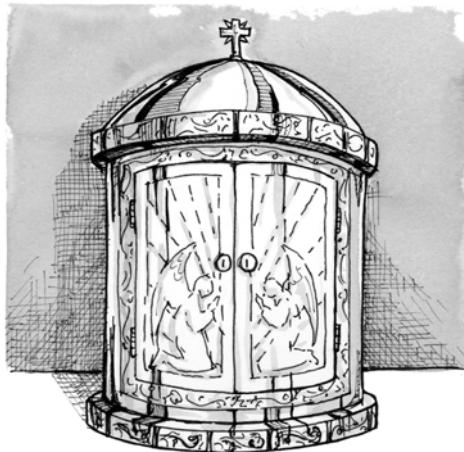

Christ was disappointed in those who understood the manna and the multiplied loaves as a free lunch. He explained that the miraculous loaves, as the manna in the desert, were images of the Eucharistic bread that comes down from heaven. "My Father gives you the real heavenly bread. I myself am the bread of life. No one who comes to me shall ever be hungry."

The promise that if we eat this bread from heaven we shall never be hungry does not refer to relief from physical hunger, nor does it mean that one reception of the Eucharist is sufficient for life. It means that once you have found Christ in the Eucharist, you need look no further for spiritual nourishment. Catholicism offers a variety of personal devotions, but all of them derive from, and have no meaning apart from the Eucharist. The Second Vatican Council said that the Eucharist is "the source and the summit of our Christian life." It is the fountain of our faith and the fullness of our faith.

Catholicism has many inspiring devotions: the rosary, stations of the cross, devotion to the saints. But the essence of Catholicism is the celebration of the Eucharist. Catholics do not go to church; we go to Mass, and we receive Communion.

There are many doors in your home, but the most popular door is the refrigerator door because you often get hungry. Catholicism has many doors to God, a variety of popular devotions. But the most important door in every Catholic church is the tabernacle door because the Eucharist completely satisfies our spiritual hunger, the food of divine life. "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger."

HUMOR

This is what we who are 70 or 80 years plus have to look forward to:

This is something that happened at an assisted living center. The people who lived there had small apartments but they all ate at a central cafeteria. One morning one of the residents didn't show up for breakfast so my wife went upstairs and knocked on his door to see if everything was OK. She could hear him through the door and he said that he was running late and would be down shortly, so she went back to the dining area.

An hour later he still hadn't arrived, so she went back up towards his room but found him on the stairs. He was coming down the stairs but was having a hard time. He had a death grip on the hand rail and seemed to have trouble getting his legs to work right. She told him she was going to call an ambulance but he told her no, he wasn't in any pain and just wanted to have his breakfast. So, she helped him the rest of the way down the stairs and he had his breakfast. When he tried to return to his room, he was completely unable to get up even the first stair step, so they called an ambulance for him.

A couple of hours later she called the hospital to see how he was doing. The receptionist there said he was fine, he just had both of his legs in one side of his boxer shorts.

I'm sending this to my children so that they don't sell the house before they know all the facts.

WARNING! SCAMS HAPPEN!

Recently numerous parishioners called saying they received a text message from our pastor. And these people did exactly what they should do—they called the individual directly (or in this case the Parish Office) before following through with any directions the text gave.

The text of this particular message was:

“I need a favor from you please kindly text me back as soon as possible.”

Don't respond to a text like this. Call using a phone number that you know belongs to the person the text says it is coming from. Find out if the text is legit. You can pretty well be sure that any time a text (or phone call) comes in saying the person on the other end needs you to purchase gift cards or some other request for money, it is a scam. Even if it sounds like it is from one of your sweet children or grandkids, don't respond. Instead give that loved one a call and enjoy a nice personal conversation with them to find out how they are doing.

Children's Ministries beginning in the fall of 2021 at St. Fidelis:

Jubilee Choir ~ For children 2nd grade and older. This is our beloved children's choir! They practice on a Wednesday evening from 5:15—6:15 P.M., prior to religion class, then sing the following Sunday (once a month) at St. Fidelis Church during the 10 A.M. Mass. The Jubilee Choir's purpose is to enhance the worship during Mass. If you enjoy singing, PLEASE consider joining and sharing your heart and voice from the choir loft! The Jubilee Choir is led by Director: Mrs. Becky Scheck and pianist: Mrs. LouAnn Hammersmith.

More info including a parent letter and the necessary enrollment form will be available at the time of enrollment! Questions? Contact Becky Scheck at 785-735-4332.

Liturgy of the Word for Children (LWC) ~ For children pre-K through 3rd grade: LWC is offered during the 10 A.M. Mass weekly at St. Fidelis and starts Sunday, September 12th. Father calls the children forward during Mass, prior to the 1st Reading, and they gather in front of the altar for a blessing and sending. The children return to parents and the congregation during the offertory. The pre-K and K aged children will be led to the north sacristy and the 1st through 3rd grade children will be led to the chapel. The children are led by adult volunteers who have completed the Safe Environment training and back ground checks. The children will participate in the readings, intercessions, and when time allows, an activity that ties to the Gospel reading. The curriculum used for LWC is Katie Thompson's: The Liturgy of the Word for Children, which follows the lectionary and Sunday readings.

Altar Servers ~ For children 4th grade and older. The Altar Servers ministry is a calling in itself! Boys and girls are invited to serve and celebrate the Mass and by doing so they are serving, and giving of themselves to the community and also our Lord, your God. Altar Servers training will take place this fall, at the beginning of the school year. Sign-up for the altar servers ministry for St. Fidelis will be available at enrollment.

Are you looking for a place to serve the children?

A LITTLE CHUCKLE

A man and woman were married for many years. Whenever there was a confrontation, yelling could be heard deep into the night.

The old man would shout, "When I die, I will dig my way up and out of the grave and come back and haunt you for the rest of your life!"

Neighbors feared him. The old man liked the fact that he was feared.

Then one evening, he died when he was 98.

After the burial, her neighbors, concerned for her safety, asked, "Aren't you afraid that he may indeed be able to dig his way out of the grave and haunt you for the rest of your life?"

The wife said, "Let him dig. I had him buried upside down . . . and I know he won't ask for directions."
